It's beginning to loo... like Christmas...

RCMP target zero tolerance for traffic sign theft

By Sgt. Peter Sherstan
Elk Point RCMP

An ongoing problem that affects not only the county but also the towns of Elk Point and St. Paul is that of sign theft. Every year thousands of tax dollars are spent on replacing sings that have been stolen or vandalized.

The RCMP is taking a zero tolerance stance on offences involving traffic signs and equipment. Although a "STOP" sign or yellow flashing construction light may be an interesting conversation piece in one's bedroom or behind the bar in the basement rec room, the taking of these items does constitute theft under the Criminal Code. Anyone found in illegal possession of these items will be charged accordingly.

Another danger associated with the removal or defacing of traffic control devices is that of safety. Recently in Florida, three teenagers were sentenced to 15 years in prison after they were found guilty of stealing a stop sign. As a result of the sign not being in its proper place, a person not familiar with the area was involved in a fatal two car collision. Similar cases have occurred in Alberta. Under Canadian law, a person who removes a sign that contributes to any type of accident could be charged with Criminal Negligence. The penalty for a person found guilty of Criminal Negligence Causing Death could include a term of life imprisonment. For Criminal Negligence Causing Bodily Harm, the penalties could go up to imprisonment for a term of ten years. Civil liability suits would also be a concern should you be implicated in the theft of signs that result in accidents.

The labor and material costs for replacing one simple sign can range from $100 to $300. These costs are directly borne by the taxpayer. Therefore, anyone witnessing suspicious activity around a traffic sign should attempt to get an accurate description of the persons and vehicles involved and contact the RCMP with that information. Furthermore, if anyone is currently in possession of illegally obtained sings, they should be returned to their rightful owners forthwith.

...named Business of the Year

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce has named E-Can Oilfield Services as their 1997 Business of the Year. E-Can was chosen by secret ballot from three nominees presented at the Chamber's November 19 meeting.

E-Can is one of Elk Point's major success stories. Starting as a very small operation in the early 1980s, it has grown to a major employer with well over 100 trucks serving the oilfield here and in other areas of the province. The nomination also recognized E-Can's safety program, their dedication to the Oil Patch Crime Watch, their enormous commitment to the community by development of industrial and residential properties and their support of many non-profit organizations in the community. E-Can "has been the leader in putting Elk Point on the oilfield services map by setting the highest standards in equipment and manpower," according to the nomination.

Also nominated for the honor were 1st Class Office Services and Ultimate Auto Glass and Upholstery. 1st Class is also highly involved in the oil industry, and is another success story of a business which started as a one person operation and has grown substantially over the past few years, now offering a full line of office supplies in additon to its bookkeeping and office services. Ultimate Auto Glass and Upholstery was applauded for its exceptional customer service.

The Business of the Year award is slated to be presented at the Chamber's December 3 meeting.

ThickSilver pipeline now at application stage

Imperial Oil Resources Limited has now applied to the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board and Alberta Environmental Protection for approval to construct a heavy-oil pipeline project between Cold Lake and Hardisty. Amoco Canada Petroleum Company Ltd. has a 30-percent interest in the pipeline.

Imperial's application seeks approval for the proposed ThickSilver Pipeline Project, which was the subject of an open house at Lindbergh earlier this year, geared at informing area residents about the pipeline which was planned to pass through their area. The 36-inch diameter pipeline is designed to transport blended bitumen from the company's Cold Lake production site to the terminal facilities at Hardisty, and is twinned with a 24-inch diameter line to transport hydrocarbon-liquid diluent from Hardisty to Cold Lake.

The proposed lines will have initial capacities of 330,000 barrels a day and 64,000 barrels a day, respectively. They will be built parallel and adjacent to existing pipeline rights-of-way for most of the 250-kilometer route so that surface impact is minimized. The project also includes two 100,000 barrel storage tanks at Cold Lake and a 22-kilometer pipeline providing Amoco's Primrose and Wolf Lake production sites access to the main ThickSilver line.

The applications initiate detailed regulatory and public review of the proposed pipeline. They include a description of the project, as well as a detailed environmental protection plan. The ThickSilver Pipeline Project was announced by Imperial in July 1997.

If regulatory approval is obtained in 1998, pipeline construction would begin in 1999, with operation commencing in 2000. Total cost of the project is estimated at $250 million.

Frog Lake School takes time to remember

By Ruth Purdy
Frog Lake Napewaew School

On Tuesday, November 11, the Frog Lake Napewaew School held a special Remembrance Day ceremony in order to honor the soldiers and war veterans. The service commenced with the singing of O Canada. Master of Ceremonies Jim Purdy introduced school counsellor Raymond Quinney who offered a Cree prayer of blessing and thanksgiving followed by the smudging of the assembly.

World War II veteran Lawrence Quinney spoke about his war experiences and expressed his gratitude that our present generation is able to enjoy a life of freedom and peace. Principal Laverne Wilson addressed the assembly, reminiscing about his childhood memories of World War II and mentioned the use of food ration cards. He also reminded the students about the importance of the poppy as a symbol of remembrance. Teacher Frank Walker spoke about his experiences with the United Nations Peace Keeping Forces. He stated that, unfortunately, we have not learned from the lessons of war since there are approximately one hundred wars and conflicts being fought in the world today.

Following the guest speakers' presentations, the Kindergarten class laid wreaths and the students from the various grades recited poems and presented essays of Remembrance, many of which were original pieces that they had written for the Royal Canadian Legion contest. A very interesting art presentation representing the Voices of War was given by the Grade Three class accompanied by music. Maggie Okanee from the Grade Four class recited In Flanders Fields. The presentations wrapped up with a Cree prayer offered by the Grade 2 and 3 classes. The ceremony concluded with an Honor Song by the Junior/Senior Boys Drum Group.

November is Family Violence Prevention Month

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

All of us can work together to prevent family violence, because family violence hurts everyone.

The Alberta Family and Social Services Office for the Prevention of Family Violence (OPFV) was created in 1984. They provide a coordinated, provincially-based government response to family violence. Their office is located on the 11th Floor, Seventh Street Plaza, 10030 - 107 Street, in Edmonton (T%J 3E4). They can be reached at (403) 422-5916 or Fax (403) 427-2039. If you would like to inquire about treatment Programs for Abusers, call them.

If you are a child, there is the Child Abuse Hot Line: 1-800-387-5437. Or, you can call the Kid's Help Line: 1-800-668-6868.

If you want help with Sexual Abuse/Assault, call Edmonton 423-4102. Or you can call the Crisis Line at 1-800-263-3045.

Now that I have talked about where to go for help, what is Family Violence? It includes abuse. What is abuse? Abuse includes: Physical Abuse (hitting, hair-pulling, biting, kicking, pushing, choking, burning and shaking); Neglect (not being given enough food, proper housing, clothing, love, attention or caring); Emotional Abuse (being pressured, threatened, yelled at, called names and being put down or ignored); Sexual Abuse (being forced to kiss someone, being touched when you don't want to be, being forced to touch or look at someone's private parts, being forced to look at sexual pictures or videos, or forced intercourse); Financial Abuse ( using or taking your money or things without asking, forcing you to sell your home or possessions, forcing you to change your will or forcing you to buy something you don't want).

Who is abused? Anyone can be abused. Females or males who are rich or poor or of any age, ability or culture may be abused.

Who are the abusers? You are more likely to be abused by someone you know rather than by a stranger. That is why the FAMILY can be an environment for abuse.

If you are abused, it is very important for you to keep telling someone until you get help. Abusers may say they are acting a certain way or doing something you don't like out of love. If it doesn't feel right for you, talk to someone you trust. Remember — if you are abused, it's not your fault.

No one has the right to abuse you. It doesn't matter where you live, who you are or who they are. Abuse is wrong.

Families are valuable to everyone. Let us work together to help the family. Let us prevent Family Violence. Each person is worth it.

Planets parade in our evening skies

By Lois Ramer
Astronomy Buff

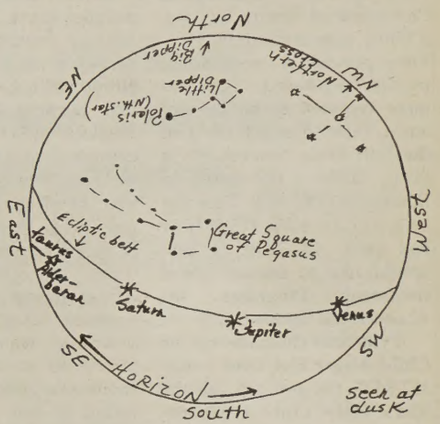
Have you noticed the sky's bright light low in the southwest at dusk? It will get increasingly brighter in the next weeks and by mid December (winter solstice — December 21) its brightness will be a magnitude 4.7!! You're right, it's Venus... 'setting' approximately two hours after the sun. She will forever remind us of the majestic contents of the universe. Don't miss her.

If your binoculars are strong enough you can also see the planet Mars near Venus. Mars is less visible as a reddish magnitude + 1.1. By winter solstice Mars will be just below Venus with only 1.1 degrees separating them. With binoculars (for Mars) you'll notice the contrast between brilliant white Venus and Mars' ruddy orange is striking.

There's a planet parade going on in our evening skies. Also at dusk we have a clear view of Saturn and Jupiter. By press time for "Sky Watch" on November 25, Saturn will be seen in the southwest as sundown. Directly above Saturn is the Great Square of Pegasus (see map). Thanks again to generosity of the Adams family: their telescope provided a view of Saturn's rings last evening, November 12. The rings of the planet Saturn (second largest planet) are made up of ice and the planet is 1,427,000,000 km. from the sun. Since the sun is 150 million km from the earth, we're looking at icy particles that are one billion, five hundred seventy seven million km. away. Oh my goodness... Great God! Saturn is in the outer group of planets... in orbit between Jupiter and Uranus. Between Jupiter and us (Earthlings) is Mars and the asteroid belt. (See your planet map).

The other planet parading before us at this time of year is Jupiter, the largest of the planets. At dusk he is very bright, approximately three fists above the horizon in the south. Its higher altitude from Venus makes spotting easier. Jupiter sets in the southwest about four hours after the sun.

Here is a sketch of the planet parade to enjoy from your deck, back yard or country road.



My 'astronomy club' friend Phyllis Scott, 71 years young, is out there watching the night skies... seeing what she's never seen before. At least not realizing she was viewing these magnificent planets. You're in for a lot more fun, Phyllis and friends. Keep looking up!

P.S. Phyllis reminds us that stars twinkle... planets do not.

CELESTIAL CALENDAR:

Dec. 3 - Crescent Moon 7o above Venus
Dec. 4 - Crescent Moon 4o above Jupiter
Dec. 8 - 9 - Gibbous Moon 1/2o below Saturn
Dec. 11 - Venus at her greatest brilliancy
Dec. 13 — Full Moon, also Geminid meteor shower, peaking in pre-dawn hours of the 14th, washed out by moonlight.

Report from the Legislature

By Paul Langevin, MLA
Lac La Biche - St. Paul

This year has brought a busy summer and autumn for MLAs in Alberta. Each of the members of our government has been hard at work on various public consultations, review committees, and task forces, in addition to doing our best to address any concerns brought up by constituents, and participate actively in community events. I'd like to share with you some of the initiatives that our government and its members have been pursuing over the past several months. These include:

* The RHA Boundary Review gave Albertans the opportunity to present their views regarding the current Regional Health Authority boundaries. The two basic reasons for the review of RHA boundaries were to clarify whether the current boundaries meet the needs of Albertans, and to ensure Albertans have the best governance structures in place for our RHAs. The final recommendations were recently submitted to Health Minister Halvar Jonson.

* Albertans had until November 1 to submit their views on new legislation being developed to address family violence.

* A review has been taking place to evaluate Alberta's Maintenance Enforcement Program and Child Access guidelines. Specifically, the review will determine how well the programs are meeting their objectives, and provide suggestions as to how they may be improved. An interim report and workplan for the review was recently completed.

* The School Facilities Task Force has been seeking Albertans' views on the provision of school facilities for Alberta's students. There are several key issues that the task force has been considering, including how to accommodate new enrollment growth, ways to maintain, renovate or replace existing facilities, how to use current facilities in the most useful ways, and how to best share resources and facilities. The public meetings were held through September and October, and the task force is expected to complete its review by the end of 1997.

* The Private Schools Funding Task Force is conducting province-wide public consultations until the end of November. The consultations will focus on the level of public funding provided to accredited private schools and designated special education schools; the conditions that these schools should meet to receive public funding, and the accountability of these schools to the government, parents and the public.

* Alberta Transportation and Utilities, through its Traffic Safety Initiative, has been providing a coordinated framework since June 1996 for delivering a comprehensive traffic safety program for Alberta. Approximately 30 traffic safety groups are working in partnership to develop and implement the initiative. The goals of the program include bringing about a sustained reduction in the number and severity of traffic collisions in Alberta.

* The Agricultural Lease Review Committee has been holding a series of public meetings across the province this fall to consult Albertans on possible changes to the legislation, regulations, or policy governing the management of agricultural leases and related public land matters in the settled (white) area of the province. The consultation process will conclude November 30.

Minor Hockey news

Big win for Atom Thunder

By Doug Bassett
Elk Point Minor Hockey

OK, let's see what happened this past weekend.

The little guys, the Elk Point Micro-novice Tornadoes, in their second game of the season on November 15, finished with a 9-9 tie in Vermilion. Hat tricks for Shayden Anderson and Chevy Botting, with two goals by Jarin Bespalko and a single by Colby Cardinal.

Dan Nelson and the Atom Thunder had a big win Saturday, crushing the Bonnyville Sabers 11 to 5. Seven goals in this contest for Jeff Swain and a hat trick from Cory Bespalko. A nice additions to the team, the newest player in the Elk Point system, Jordan Suidy, from Manitoba, added a goal and two assists in his first game. Although he wasn't in on the scoring, it wasn't from lack of effort from the towering Greg Kozicky, who played a fine game. Another guy who was hot was goaltender Brett Nelson, who was called up from the novice farm team, and shut the Sabers down on many two-on-none breakaways.

Dave Cousins' Atom Avalanche played a tough exhibition game against a Tier 1 team from Kitscoty, Sunday afternoon. Goals by Devin Moneta, Jesse Kozicky, Zack MacKinnon and Lee Letestu in a losing battle. The old rivalry is just beginning for these boys.

The Peewee Blades weren't intimidated by the size of the big Tier 1 team from Wainwright. With a day off on Saturday when Onion Lake was a no show, the Blades came out flying on Sunday in the exhibition match. Playing half a game each, the goaltender tag team of Chance Dumont and Brandon Parenteau shut out Wainwright 5 - 0. Helping with the cause, defenceman George Danyluk took a pounding, but stood his ground and never backed down from the bigger players. A good move by the Hawk to put team captain Brian Poitras on the forward line with Mark Letestu. Brian, who normally plays defence, had a single and assisted on a hat trick by Letestu. Colton Hoffman also added a single.

The Bantam Lightning playing in a tournament in St. Paul met some tough competition, losing close games with "AA" teams from Lacombe and St. Albert. Not only did they lose games, but they also lost one of their rookie defencemen, Kent Bjornstad, who suffered a broken collarbone in the first period of the first game and will be out six to eight weeks. Kent, who has played solid all year on the point, returned to the Elk Point system this year after playing two years of "AA" in St. Paul. My good buddy Kevin feels the pain as much as Kent.

This week the Lightning hosts Vermilion on Friday at 7:45 p.m. Saturday the Tornadoes will host Vermilion at 9:00 a.m. Come down and cheer the future stars on. Then there's great entertaining hockey all day, including the Blades who host Pierceland at 4:30, followed by the Storm at 7:00.

What happened to Page Seven?

Our apologies for cutting the Hockey News short last week. Here is, as Paul Harvey says, "the rest of the story..."

Top billing for the game of the week was in the Atom league Saturday afternoon when two Elk Point teams, the Avalanche and the Thunder went head to head. A very fast and entertaining game from the first faceoff, with end to end action, both teams evenly matched, and solid goaltending by Kurt Kozicky of the Avalanche and Cory Bespalko of the Thunder. (Since the midgets aren't using the name this year, it was loaned out one season to Dan Nelson's Atom team.) The Avalanche had defeated the Thunder earlier this season, but this time it was the Thunder's turn, coming out on top 5 to 3. Jeff Swain, following in his older brother's footsteps, scored a hat trick for the Thunder, with the Ockerman brothers, Darcy and Ryan, getting a single each. Zack MacKinnon with two and Brandon Holthe with a single scored for the Avalanche. Win or lose, both these teams have lots of young talent and it should be great to watch them develop in years to come.

The Peewee Blades came out flat but managed a 6-all tie against champion wagon driver Buddy Bensmiller and the Dewberry Colts on Saturday night. Early Sunday morning, with a very short bench and some key players missing the trip, they were defeated by the Tier I team up in St. Paul.

The Bantam Lightning up in the Perogy Capitol for a tournament, defeated Cold Lake and tied Bonnyville to make it into the B final, but lost a close one by one goal to the host team Bonnyville.

*********

And last but most important, on Monday night in the Triple A Beer League, the BMW Broncos once again trounced Doug and the Slugs (the B & R Bullets). It was a fast paced, hard hitting affair with the better team coming out on top 10 to 4.

What's news at the library?

We have our Christmas trees up!

By Michele Duczek
Librarian

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at the library. Our Christmas trees are up and plans are afoot for Christmas crafts at Storytime. There will be no pinata at the Storytime Christmas party this year but last year's hit, gingerbread kids on toboggans, will be back. Make plans to bring your preschooler (or come without, we'd love to have you).

The library received a new shipment of books this past week and hidden among the pages were these four videos:

Charlotte Bronte's classic Gothic romance comes to life in the BBC's wonderful production of Jane Eyre with Zelah Clarke as Jane and Timothy Dalton as Rochester.

Another classic on video is Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen. This 1980 BBC production stars Elizabeth Garvie as Elizabeth and David Rintoul as Darcy.

A novice teacher faces a cass of rowdy, undisciplined, working class punks in To Sir, With Love starring Sidney Poitier.

Get into the Christmas spirit with the classic version of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol starring Alistair Sim.

Recent arrivals in adult fiction:

Eighty centuries before our time in what is now called Alaska, a young woman is brutally attacked and vows vengeance on the men who hurt her in Song of the River by Sue Harrison.

Three people have been found murdered by someone known only as "the Avenging Angel" and Karl Alberg is the only one who can solve the mystery in Acts of Murder by L. R. Wright.

Andrew Greely gives us a little Christmas present with Star Bright: A Christmas Story. An American invites a beautiful Russian woman to spend Christmas with him and his family and all sorts of merriment ensues.

The New Republic faces its greatest threat as a cunning and ruthless Imperial warlord, long presumed dead, turns up alive in Specter of the Past, a Star Wars novel by Timothy Zahn.

Two whaling ships leave Connecticut in 1875 for the Baffin Island whaling grounds and their captains will soon find themselves in a struggle for control of the enterprise in The Ice Master: a Novel of the Arctic by James Houston.

New in children's fiction:

Marmee's Surprise is an adaptation by Monica Kulling of a story from Louisa May Alcott's Little Women. In this story it is Christmas in the March household and Marmee is going to get a special present. A Step Into Reading book.

Claudia helps a friend clean out an old house and searches for paintings by a famous artist in Claudia and the Mystery in the Painting, a Baby-Sitters Club Mystery.
